

I urge that technology available be used in order to receive digital tv without being forced to rent a box to make it work. I also don't think it's fair to force us to use digital. That seems to be an optional choice, but we have no 'option' on this. Either get digital or go without tv if you get no reception without cable.